

Name of the indicator	14.2 Percentage of average paid employment in maritime economy
Sustainable Development Goal	Goal 14. Life below water
Target	-
Definition	Average paid employment in maritime economy as % of average paid employment in the national economy.
Unit	percent [%]
Available dimensions	total
Methodological explanations	The integral parts of maritime economy include seaports activity, fisheries, shipbuilding and shiprepair, exploitation of the world ocean resources, tourism and recreation, administration, education, science and salvage. Data on average paid employment in maritime economy refer to the number full- and part-time employees converted to full-time equivalents, excluding persons employed abroad. Full-time paid employees are persons employed on a full-time basis as their employer defined for their workplace; or employees who work a reduced work-time period, e.g. due to hazardous conditions or an extended work-time period (e.g. a property caretaker). Part-time paid employees are persons who regularly work on a part-time basis as their employer defined for their workplace. The part-time employees in their main workplace are those who declared a particular workplace as their principal workplace
Source of data	Statistics Poland
Data availability	Annual data; since 2010
Notes	-