

Statistics for the SDGs - indicators for national priorities

Sustainable Development Goal 5. Gender equality Goal 5. Gender equality  Priority More complete fulfillment of the principle of women and men's equality The indicator measures the difference between the employment rates of men and women aged 25 to 54.  Unit p.p.  Available dimentions total  Employment rate is a share of the employed people of a given category in the total population of a given category. The indicator is based on the EU Labour Force Sur (LFS).  LFS is conducted on a quarterly basis. The survey is conducted as continuous observation (movable survey week) what allows presenting the situation on the labor market during a whole quarter. The survey covers persons aged 15 and more who a members of households in dwellings selected on a random basis.  In the context of economic activity — work is the main criterion in dividing the popular i.e. performing, holding or seeking work. According to the international standards, the tree main categories are distinguished: employed, unemployed and economically inactive persons. The employed, unemployed are the economically inactive persons. The employed, unemployed are the economically inactive persons. The employed, unemployed are the economically active population.  Among the employed are included all persons aged 15 years or more who during the reference week:  1) performed for at least one hour any work generating pay or income, i.e. were employed as paid employees, worked on their own (or leased) agricultural farm, or conducted their own economic activity outside agriculture, assisted (without pay) in conducting family agricultural farm or family economic activity outside agriculture, assisted of the preak was longer than 3 months in case when persons were paid employees the additional criterion is receiving during that period at least 50% of the hitherto earning activity outside agriculture, assisted (without pay) in conducting family agricultural farm or family economic activity outside agriculture, assisted (without pay) in conducting family agricultural
The indicator measures the difference between the employment rates of men and women aged 25 to 54.  Unit p.p.  Available dimentions total  Employment rate is a share of the employed people of a given category in the total population of a given category. The indicator is based on the EU Labour Force Sur (LFS).  LFS is conducted on a quarterly basis. The survey is conducted as continuous observation (movable survey week) what allows presenting the situation on the labor market during a whole quarter. The survey covers persons aged 15 and more who a members of households in dwellings selected on a random basis.  In the context of economic activity — work is the main criterion in dividing the popular i.e. performing, holding or seeking work. According to the international standards, it tree main categories are distinguished: employed, unemployed and economically inactive persons. The employed, unemployed are the economically inactive persons. The employed, unemployed are the economically active population at the employed are included all persons aged 15 years or more who during the employed as paid employees, worked on their own (or leased) agricultural farm, or conducted their own economic activity outside agriculture, assisted (without pay) in conducting family agricultural farm or family economic activity outside agriculture, assisted (without pay) in conducting family agricultural farm or family economic activity outside agriculture, assisted (without pay) in conducting family agricultural farm or family economic activity outside agriculture, assisted (without pay) in conducting family agricultural farm or family economic activity outside agriculture, assisted (without pay) in conducting family agricultural farm or family economic activity outside agriculture, assisted (without pay) in conducting family agricultural farm or family economic activity outside agriculture, assisted (without pay) in conducting family agricultural farm or family economic activity outside agriculture, assisted (without pay) in conduct Unit  p.p.  Available dimentions  total  Employment rate is a share of the employed people of a given category in the total population of a given category. The indicator is based on the EU Labour Force Sur (LFS).  LFS is conducted on a quarterly basis. The survey is conducted as continuous observation (movable survey week) what allows presenting the situation on the labor market during a whole quarter. The survey covers persons aged 15 and more who a members of households in dwellings selected on a random basis.  In the context of economic activity — work is the main criterion in dividing the popula i.e. performing, holding or seeking work. According to the international standards, the tree main categories are distinguished: employed, unemployed and economically inactive persons. The employed, unemployed are the economically active population.  Among the employed are included all persons aged 15 years or more who during the reference week:  1) performed for at least one hour any work generating pay or income, i.e. were employed as paid employees, worked on their own (or leased) agricultural farm, or conducted their own economic activity outside agriculture, assisted (without pay) in conducting family agricultural farm or family economic activity outside agriculture,  2) had work but did not perform it: (e.g. due to illness, maternity leave or vacation, a break in company activity) if the break in employment did not exceed 3 months; if the break in employment did not exceed 3 months; if the break in employment did not exceed 3 months; if the break was longer than 3 months in case when persons were paid employees the additional criterion is receiving during that period at least 50% of the hitherto earnin.  According to international standards, among employees are also included persons performing outwork and apprentices with whom enterprises or natural persons signs.
Employment rate is a share of the employed people of a given category in the total population of a given category. The indicator is based on the EU Labour Force Sur (LFS).  LFS is conducted on a quarterly basis. The survey is conducted as continuous observation (movable survey week) what allows presenting the situation on the labor market during a whole quarter. The survey covers persons aged 15 and more who a members of households in dwellings selected on a random basis.  In the context of economic activity – work is the main criterion in dividing the populatic. e. performing, holding or seeking work. According to the international standards, the tree main categories are distinguished: employed, unemployed and economically inactive persons. The employed, unemployed are the economically active population.  Among the employed are included all persons aged 15 years or more who during the reference week:  1) performed for at least one hour any work generating pay or income, i.e. were employed as paid employees, worked on their own (or leased) agricultural farm, or conducted their own economic activity outside agriculture, assisted (without pay) in conducting family agricultural farm or family economic activity outside agriculture,  2) had work but did not perform it: (e.g. due to illness, maternity leave or vacation, a break in company activity) if the break in employment did not exceed 3 months; if the break was longer than 3 months in case when persons were paid employees the additional criterion is receiving during that period at least 50% of the hitherto earning.  According to international standards, among employees are also included persons performing outwork and apprentices with whom enterprises or natural persons signs.
Employment rate is a share of the employed people of a given category in the total population of a given category. The indicator is based on the EU Labour Force Sur (LFS).  LFS is conducted on a quarterly basis. The survey is conducted as continuous observation (movable survey week) what allows presenting the situation on the labour market during a whole quarter. The survey covers persons aged 15 and more who a members of households in dwellings selected on a random basis.  In the context of economic activity — work is the main criterion in dividing the population. Experiorming, holding or seeking work. According to the international standards, it tree main categories are distinguished: employed, unemployed and economically inactive persons. The employed, unemployed are the economically active population. Among the employed are included all persons aged 15 years or more who during the reference week:  1) performed for at least one hour any work generating pay or income, i.e. were employed as paid employees, worked on their own (or leased) agricultural farm, or conducted their own economic activity outside agriculture, assisted (without pay) in conducting family agricultural farm or family economic activity outside agriculture,  2) had work but did not perform it: (e.g. due to illness, maternity leave or vacation, a break in company activity) if the break in employment did not exceed 3 months; if the break was longer than 3 months in case when persons were paid employees the additional criterion is receiving during that period at least 50% of the hitherto earning.  According to international standards, among employees are also included persons performing outwork and apprentices with whom enterprises or natural persons signs. population of a given category. The indicator is based on the EU Labour Force Sur (LFS).  LFS is conducted on a quarterly basis. The survey is conducted as continuous observation (movable survey week) what allows presenting the situation on the labor market during a whole quarter. The survey covers persons aged 15 and more who a members of households in dwellings selected on a random basis.  In the context of economic activity — work is the main criterion in dividing the populative. Performing, holding or seeking work. According to the international standards, it tree main categories are distinguished: employed, unemployed and economically inactive persons. The employed, unemployed are the economically active population.  Among the employed are included all persons aged 15 years or more who during the reference week:  1) performed for at least one hour any work generating pay or income, i.e. were employed as paid employees, worked on their own (or leased) agricultural farm, or conducted their own economic activity outside agriculture, assisted (without pay) in conducting family agricultural farm or family economic activity outside agriculture,  2) had work but did not perform it: (e.g. due to illness, maternity leave or vacation, a break in company activity) if the break in employment did not exceed 3 months; if the break was longer than 3 months in case when persons were paid employees the additional criterion is receiving during that period at least 50% of the hitherto earning the performing outwork and apprentices with whom enterprises or natural persons significant interprises or natural persons significant in the person is given the person of the person in the person is given the person in the person in the person is given the person in the person in the person is given the person in th Due to the survey methodological assumptions the number of the employed obtaine from the LFS does not comprise some categories of persons, who are considered a employed in the establishment survey, i.a.:  a) employees living in lodging houses for workers,  b) employees working abroad for their Polish employers.
Data source Statistics Poland
Data availability Annual data; since 2010
Notes

Last update: 19-05-2020, 10:50