

Statistics for the SDGs - global indicators

Sustainable Development Goal 3.7 By 2030, ensure universal access to sexual and reproductive health-care services, including for family planning, information and education, and the integration of reproductive health into national strategies and programmes Definition The percentage of women of reproductive age (15-49 years) who have their need for family planning satisfied with modern methods. Unit percent [%] Available dimensions The indicator is calculated on the basis of information obtained from the European Health Interview Survey (EHIS). This study covers persons aged 15 and more in households living in the territory of the country. The data concern the proportion of women at the reproductive age (15-49 years) who have sexually cohabited and declared using at least one modern method of contraception ie use of a condom, contraceptive pill, other hormonal agents (e.g. plasters, sprays) and mechanical, etc. Data source Statistics Poland Data availability Data every 5 years 2009, 2014.	Name of the indicator	3.7.1 Percentage of women of reproductive age (aged 15-49 years) who have their need for family planning satisfied with modern methods
Target including for family planning, information and education, and the integration of reproductive health into national strategies and programmes The percentage of women of reproductive age (15-49 years) who have their need for family planning satisfied with modern methods. Unit percent [%] Available dimensions total The indicator is calculated on the basis of information obtained from the European Health Interview Survey (EHIS). This study covers persons aged 15 and more in households living in the territory of the country. The data concern the proportion of women at the reproductive age (15-49 years) who have sexually cohabited and declared using at least one modern method of contraception ie use of a condom, contraceptive pill, other hormonal agents (e.g. plasters, sprays) and mechanical, etc. Data source Statistics Poland Data every 5 years 2009, 2014.	-	Goal 3. Good health and well-being family planning satisfied with modern methods. Unit percent [%] Available dimensions total The indicator is calculated on the basis of information obtained from the European Health Interview Survey (EHIS). This study covers persons aged 15 and more in households living in the territory of the country. Methodological explanations The data concern the proportion of women at the reproductive age (15-49 years) who have sexually cohabited and declared using at least one modern method of contraception ie use of a condom, contraceptive pill, other hormonal agents (e.g. plasters, sprays) and mechanical, etc. Data source Statistics Poland Data every 5 years 2009, 2014.	Target	including for family planning, information and education, and the integration of
Available dimensions total The indicator is calculated on the basis of information obtained from the European Health Interview Survey (EHIS). This study covers persons aged 15 and more in households living in the territory of the country. Methodological explanations The data concern the proportion of women at the reproductive age (15-49 years) who have sexually cohabited and declared using at least one modern method of contraception ie use of a condom, contraceptive pill, other hormonal agents (e.g. plasters, sprays) and mechanical, etc. Data source Statistics Poland Data every 5 years 2009, 2014.	Definition
The indicator is calculated on the basis of information obtained from the European Health Interview Survey (EHIS). This study covers persons aged 15 and more in households living in the territory of the country. Methodological explanations The data concern the proportion of women at the reproductive age (15-49 years) who have sexually cohabited and declared using at least one modern method of contraception ie use of a condom, contraceptive pill, other hormonal agents (e.g. plasters, sprays) and mechanical, etc. Data source Statistics Poland Data every 5 years 2009, 2014.	Unit	percent [%]
Health Interview Survey (EHIS). This study covers persons aged 15 and more in households living in the territory of the country. Methodological explanations The data concern the proportion of women at the reproductive age (15-49 years) who have sexually cohabited and declared using at least one modern method of contraception ie use of a condom, contraceptive pill, other hormonal agents (e.g. plasters, sprays) and mechanical, etc. Data source Statistics Poland Data every 5 years 2009, 2014.	Available dimensions	total
Data availability Data every 5 years 2009, 2014.		Health Interview Survey (EHIS). This study covers persons aged 15 and more in households living in the territory of the country. The data concern the proportion of women at the reproductive age (15-49 years) who have sexually cohabited and declared using at least one modern method of contraception ie use of a condom, contraceptive pill, other hormonal agents (e.g.
	Data source	Statistics Poland
Notes	Data availability	Data every 5 years 2009, 2014.
110100	Notes

Last update: 15-12-2020, 08:21