

Statistics for the SDGs - global indicators

Target 8.8 Protect labour rights and promote safe and secure working environments for all workers, including migrant workers, in particular women migrants, and those in precarious employment The overall incidence rate of accidents at work (excluding private farms in agriculture) is the number of the injured per 1000 of the employed the average number of the employed, calculated as arithmetic mean as of 31.12 from the year preceding the reference year and from the reference year, has been used for the calculation of the indicator. Unit persons Available dimensions Methodological explanations total, fatal accidents at work covers all accidents at work as well as accidents explanations explanations Information on accidents at work, regardless of whether or not the person showed the inability to work. Accident at work is understood as a sudden event, caused by external reason leading to injury or death which happened in connection with work. 1) during or it connection with performance of ordinary activities or instructions by the employee and activities for the employer, even without instructions 2) when the employee remains at the disposal of the employer on the way between the seat of the employer and the place of performing the duty, which is a result of work relations. Every accident is treated equally to an accident at work, as regards entitlement to benefits defined in the law in social insurance by virtue of accidents at work, if the employee had such accident to during a training within the scope of common self-defence 3) at performing tasks ordered by trade union organizations, functioning at the employer. Accident at work is also understood as a sudden incident, causing injury or death, which happened within the term of accident insurance during: 1) practising sports during competitions and trainings by a person receiving sport scholarship 2) performance of paid work in the time of serving imprisonment sentences or temporary detentions 3) carrying out a mandate by members of agricultural producers	Name of the indicator	8.8.1 The number of injured persons at work per 1000 of the employed (incidence rate of accidents)
workers, including migrant workers, in particular women migrants, and those in precarious employment. The overall incidence rate of accidents at work (excluding private farms in agriculture) is the number of the injured per 1000 of the employed the average number of the employed, calculated as arithmetic mean as of 31.12 from the year preceding the reference year and from the reference year, has been used for the calculation of the indicator. Unit persons Available dimensions total, fatal accidents Information on accidents at work covers all accidents at work as well as accidents equivalent to accidents at work, regardless of whether or not the person showed the inability to work. Accident at work is understood as a sudden event, caused by external reason leading to injury or death which happened in connection whore. Youring or it connection with performance of ordinary activities or instructions by the employee and activities for the employer, even without instructions 2) when the employee remains at the disposal of the employer, even without instructions 2) when the employee and the place of performing the duty, which is a result of work relations. Every accident is treated equally to an accident at work, as regards entitlement to benefits defined in the law in social insurance by virtue of accidents at work, if the employee and the place of performing that so ordered by trade union organizations, functioning at the employer. Accident at work is also understood as a sudden incident, causing ripury or death, which happened within the term of accident insurance during: 1) practising sports during competitions and trainings by a person receiving sport scholarship 2) performance of paid work in the time of serving imprisonment sentences or temporary detentions 3) carrying out a mandate by members of parliament (in the country or in the European Parliament) or senate, who receive salaries 4) carrying out – on the basis of appointmen issues by powial tabour office or the supervising entity – training or a trai	Sustainable Development Goal	Goal 8. Decent work and economic growth the number of the injured per 1000 of the employed the average number of the employed, calculated as arithmetic mean as of 31 .12 from the year preceding the reference year and from the reference year, has been used for the calculation of the indicator. Unit persons Available dimensions total, fatal accidents Information on accidents at work covers all accidents at work as well as accidents explanations Information on accidents at work, regardless of whether or not the person showed the inability to work. Accident at work is understood as a sudden event, caused by external reason leading to injury or death which happened in connection with work. 1) during or in connection with performance of ordinary activities or instructions by the employee and activities for the employer, even without instructions 2) when the employer emains at the disposal of the employer on the way between the seat of the employer and the place of performing the duty, which is a result of work relations. Every accident is treated equally to an accident at work, as regards entitlement to benefits defined in the law in social insurance by virtue of accidents at work, if the employee had such accident: 1) during a business trip 2) during a training within the scope of common self-defence 3) at performing tasks ordered by trade union organizations, functioning at the employer. Accident at work is also understood as a sudden incident, causing injury or death, which happened within the term of accident insurance during: 1) practising sports during competitions and trainings by a person receiving sport scholarship 2) performance of paid work in the time of serving imprisonment sentences or temporary detentions 3) carrying out a mandate by members of parliament (in the country or in the European Parliament) or sente, who receive salaries 4) carrying out – on the basis of appointmen issues by powiat labour office or the supervising entity – training or a traineeship connected with a scholarship received by school leavers (graduates) 5) perform	Target	workers, including migrant workers, in particular women migrants, and those in
Available dimensions Methodological explanations Information on accidents at work covers all accidents at work as well as accidents equivalent to accidents at work, regardless of whether or not the person showed the inability to work. Accident at work is understood as a sudden event, caused by external reason leading to injury or death which happened in connection with work: 1) during or it connection with performance of ordinary activities or instructions by the employee and activities for the employer, even without instructions 2) when the employee and activities for the employer on the way between the seat of the employer and the place of performing the duty, which is a result of work relations. Every accident is treated equally to an accident at work, as regards entitlement to benefits defined in the law in social insurance by virtue of accidents at work, if the employee had such accident: 1) during a business trip 2) during a training within the scope of common self-defence 3) at performing tasks ordered by trade union organizations, functioning at the employer. Accident at work is also understood as a sudden incident, causing injury or death, which happened within the term of accident insurance during: 1) practising sports during competitions and trainings by a person receiving sport scholarship 2) performance of paid work in the time of serving imprisonment sentences or temporary detentions 3) carrying out a mandate by members of parliament (in the country or in the European Parliament) or senate, who receive salaries 4) carrying out on the basis of appointmen issues by powiat labour office or the supervising entity – training or a traineeship connected with a scholarship received by school leavers (graduates) 5) performance of work by members of agricultural producers' cooperatives, agricultural farmers' cooperatives and by other persons treated equally to members of cooperatives, for the benefit of these cooperatives (b) performance or cooperation at performance of work on the basis of agency agreeme	Definition	employed, calculated as arithmetic mean as of 31.12 from the year preceding the reference year and from the reference year, has been used for the calculation of the Information on accidents at work covers all accidents at work as well as accidents equivalent to accidents at work, regardless of whether or not the person showed the inability to work. Accident at work is understood as a sudden event, caused by external reason leading to injury or death which happened in connection with work: 1) during or in connection with performance of ordinary activities or instructions by the employee and activities for the employer, even without instructions 2 when the employer emains at the disposal of the employer on the way between the seat of the employer and the place of performing the duty, which is a result of work relations. Every accident is treated equally to an accident at work, as regards entitlement to benefits defined in the law in social insurance by virtue of accidents at work, if the employee had such accident: 1) during a business trip 2) during a training within the scope of common self-defence 3) at performing tasks ordered by trade union organizations, functioning at the employer. Accident at work is also understood as a sudden incident, causing injury or death, which happened within the term of accident insurance during: 1) practising sports during competitions and trainings by a person receiving sport scholarship 2) performance of paid work in the time of serving imprisonment sentences or temporary detentions 3) carrying out a mandate by members of parliament (in the country or in the European Parliament) or senate, who receive salaries 4) carrying out – on the basis of appointmer issues by powiat labour office or the supervising entity – training or a traineeship connected with a scholarship received by school leavers (graduates) 5) performance of work by members of agricultural producers' cooperatives, agricultural farmers' cooperatives and by other persons treated equally to members of cooperatives, for the benefit of these cooperatives (b) performance or cooperation at performance of work on the basis of agency agreements, contracts of mandate or contracts of s	Unit	persons equivalent to accidents at work, regardless of whether or not the person showed the inability to work. Accident at work is understood as a sudden event, caused by external reason leading to injury or death which happened in connection with work: 1) during or in connection with performance of ordinary activities or instructions by the employee and activities for the employer, even without instructions 2) when the employer and the place of performing the duty, which is a result of work relations. Every accident is treated equally to an accident at work, as regards entitlement to benefits defined in the law in social insurance by virtue of accidents at work, if the employee had such accident: 1) during a business trip 2) during a training within the scope of common self-defence 3) at performing tasks ordered by trade union organizations, functioning at the employer. Accident at work is also understood as a sudden incident, causing injury or death, which happened within the term of accident insurance during; 1) practising sports during competitions and trainings by a person receiving sport scholarship 2) performance of paid work in the time of serving imprisonment sentences or temporary detentions 3) carrying out a mandate by members of parliament (in the country or in the European Parliament) or senate, who receive salaries 4) carrying out – on the basis of appointment issues by powiat labour office or the supervising entity – training or a traineeship connected with a scholarship received by school leavers (graduates) 5) performance of work by members of agricultural producers' cooperatives, agricultural farmers' cooperatives and by other persons treated equally to members of cooperatives for the benefit of these cooperatives 6) performance or cooperation at performance of work on the basis of agency agreements, contracts of mandate or contracts of services 7) performance of usual activities connected with conducting non-agricultural economic activities or cooperations at conducting them 8) performance of religio	Available dimensions	total, fatal accidents
Data availability Annual data Since 2010.	Methodological explanations	equivalent to accidents at work, regardless of whether or not the person showed the inability to work. Accident at work is understood as a sudden event, caused by external reason leading to injury or death which happened in connection with work: 1) during or in connection with performance of ordinary activities or instructions by the employee and activities for the employer, even without instructions 2) when the employee remains at the disposal of the employer on the way between the seat of the employer and the place of performing the duty, which is a result of work relations. Every accident is treated equally to an accident at work, as regards entitlement to benefits defined in the law in social insurance by virtue of accidents at work, if the employee had such accident: 1) during a business trip 2) during a training within the scope of common self-defence 3) at performing tasks ordered by trade union organizations, functioning at the employer. Accident at work is also understood as a sudden incident, causing injury or death, which happened within the term of accident insurance during: 1) practising sports during competitions and trainings by a person receiving sport scholarship 2) performance of paid work in the time of serving imprisonment sentences or temporary detentions 3) carrying out a mandate by members of parliament (in the country or in the European Parliament) or senate, who receive salaries 4) carrying out – on the basis of appointment issues by powiat labour office or the supervising entity – training or a traineeship connected with a scholarship received by school leavers (graduates) 5) performance of work by members of agricultural producers' cooperatives, agricultural farmers' cooperatives and by other persons treated equally to members of cooperatives, for the benefit of these cooperatives 6) performance or cooperation at performance of work on the basis of agency agreements, contracts of mandate or contracts of services 7) performance of usual activities connected with conducting non-agricult
•	Data source	Statistics Poland
Notes	Data availability	Annual data Since 2010.
	Notes	